

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

Name _____

Cause and Effect

- A cause is why something happens. An effect is what happens.
- Sometimes there is more than one cause of an effect, and sometimes there are multiple effects of a cause.

Directions Answer the questions on the lines provided.

1. What was a cause of segregation? What was an effect of segregation?

2. What does “separate but equal” mean? Why didn’t separate but equal schools work?

3. What is the NAACP, and why is it so important?

4. Why do people need to fight for their rights? What happened in this book to people when they didn’t fight?

5. How does what you know about segregation help you better understand this book?

Vocabulary

Directions Use the vocabulary words in the box to fill in the blanks in the sentences below.

Check the Words You Know

___aspiring

___discrimination

___diversity ___doctrine

___integration

___jeering

___tactics

1. Jacob was practicing shooting hoops every day for hours and hours because he was an _____ basketball player.
2. “Go home! We don’t want anyone here who likes to eat liver and onions!” said the crowd of _____ kids.
3. Debby’s saying that she will only go to baseball games is _____ against football games.
4. People have come from all different countries! Isn’t it great that there is so much _____ here?
5. When people of all races are able to go to the same schools, this is called _____.
6. The _____ of “separate but equal” says that it is okay for African Americans and whites to have separate schools as long as the schools are equally good.
7. Bill and his team used a variety of _____ to gain the lead in the basketball game.